RANGOON, November 16 .- The capture of the Burmese man-of-war will prevent the Burmese from placing further obstructions in the tiver or moving troops and guns by the river route, and will disabuse the minds of the natives of the idea that King Thebaw is invincible. The steamer Doowoon, recently sent to Mandalay to bring away Europears detained there by the Burmese Government, has escaped from there and reached the British lines. When the authorities at Mandalay discovered the Doowoon moving out into the river. They opened a heavy fire on her, and sent a force to board The boarding party were repulsed by the crew of the Doowoon, and putting on a full head of steam she ran the gauntlet and escaped with little injury, and bearing off in safety a party of British. The Italian Consul and other Europeans are still detained at Mandalay, not having been able to get on board. The city was quiet on the 11th instant, but at the palace a revoution was expected.

RANGOON, November 16,-In the fight with the war-vessel belonging to King Thebaw, the fire from the British teamer Kathleen caused 200 of the crew of the Burmese vessel to jump overboard. The British then boarded the vessel and proceeded up the Irrawaddi with her. It is reported that 3,000 Burmese troops are stockaded at Fort Duligon, which occupies the high dominating position overhanging the river at Minhia.

LOUIS DAVID RIEL HANGED. Executed at Region Yesterday-The Last Scene and His Last Utterances-Praying for the Premier. [By telegraph to the Dispatch.] REGINA, N. W. T., November 16 .-Louis David Riel was executed on the scaffold at the barracks of the mounted police force, near this city, for high reason against the Queen of Great Britain, at 8:23 o'clock this morning mountain time). He displayed an inclination at the last moment to make an address, but Pere Andre reminded him of his promise, and he then arose and walked toward the executioner, repeating his prayers to the last moment, the final words escaping being "Merci, Jesus." He died without a struggle. Not to exceed twenty persons were permitted within the confines of the barracks to witness the execution, and it was certainly performed with decorum and dis-His body was taken in charge by the coroner, and a verdict usual all State executions was rendered.

DETAILS OF THE EXECUTION. The scallold for the execution of Riel had been erected within a contracted enclosure in the rear of the guardhouse, and the only view of it was through a window immediately under the rafter. The last sacrament was administered to the condemned within the guardhouse proper, and near the opening which led to the scaffold. He responded to the Latin prayers with a full and clear voice while on his bended knees. When the moment came for him to rise and have his arms and hands pinioned, he looked up slowly, repeating his prayers. He then walked through the opening and down the narrow stairway with his face turned away from the few civilians and soldiers who stood about the opening. When he was about to take his place on the trap the deputy sheriff asked if he had anything to say. He turned to his confessor, Pere Andre, and inquired. " Shall I not say a few words?" quickly replied the priest in French; make this your last sacrifice and you will be rewarded." Riel turned and remarked in English. "I have nothing more to say."

There was some delay in adjusting the noose, but Riel did not remark upon it, and as the white cap closed over him he was to be heard distinctly repeating his prayers.

During the night Pere Andre urged upon Riel not to attempt an address upon the scaffold, and suggested that a reprieve might still be on its way; bu this idea Riel strenuously repelled. that he would not have it any other way, as nothing but the alternative of prison for life awaited him. and to him death was preferable to that. During the night he addressed a letter to his mother and to his sister, which touched upon the affection he bore them. He added a codicil to his will, specifying that he desired his body to be laid by the side of his father's in St. Boniface cemetery, at Winnipeg, which request will be carried out. Pere Andre will go there with Riel's remains within a few days. His body was interred to-day underneath the scatfold.

HE PRAYS FOR ALL. He prayed almost continuously during the night, using the prayers of the Church and then again praying exempore in both French and English. He directed a prayer for his friends in the United States, where he declared | served. most of them were, and again for his friends in Quebec. He prayed for his him. The attending priest told him it was his duty to pray for his enemies. He replied : "That is so," and at once began to pray in English for the Premier of Canada, but in his supplication he asked that the Government might soon be relieved from his rule. Riel partook of a light repast at 11 o'clock last night. He ate no breakfast this morning, which caused him to show At one time some slight faintness, but heafterwards recovered from this weakness, and it appeared to require no effort in mounting the ladder which led to the attic of the guard-house, on his way to the scaffold. There was barely a quiver as the drop fell, and Riel's death was pronounced an easy one.

During the early hours of the morn ng he gathered up all his papers, which covered his desk, embodying the sup-posed visions he had seen and his prophesics, and asked the privilege from the officer of the guard to destroy them. This was allowed him, and, gathering them together, he carried them to an open-stove fire and thrust them in, watching them until the flames had devoured them. He then returned

SENTIMENT IN THE NORTHWEST. It would be difficult at this time to gauge the sentiment clearly in the Northwest as to Riel. The expressed views are almost entirely unfavorable to him, and the half-breeds are usually silent upon the topic. A majority of the resident population believes he deserved death, and this is undoubtedly especially true in Manitoba. Here, where he was tried, there was some expression of sympathy for him, and at times a declaration that he was right in his demands, as they had nearly all since been granted to the half-breeds.

EXCITEMENT IN QUEBEC.

The Populace Greatly Stirred-Feurs of Trouble. [By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

QUEBEC, November 16.-The excitement here over the hanging of Riel s almost beyond all restraint. A fing was hoisted at half-mast upon the Canadian office, and some English-speaking citizens, who felt aggrieved at this, came near to being roughly handled. Flags decked with mourning emblems are also displayed, and many men have crape on their hats and around their coat-sleeves. It would be hard to tell what the result will be. To-night 200 or 300 students, with their friends, have been marching Spain's sovereignty over the Caroline ry to Riel" and cursing the Crange men. Crowds are gathered near lalands, and advises Germany to accept Sir Hector Langevin's house, in St. understood that the Pope has recognized Spain's sovereignty over the Caroline ry to Riel" and cursing the Orange-Louis street, and it is feared they intend mischief in that quarter. The police, however, are on the alert and are patrolling in large numbers. Handbills have been distributed to all passers-by calling on them to meet to-night. These bills are headed in large letters. and read as follows: "Riel Hanged L'infamie consommé! Triumph of Or-angemen over Catholics and French-Canadians!"

"There will be this evening at the Jacques Cartier Market-place a meeting of all French Canadians of the city of Quebec to protest against the terrible murder committed this morning by Sir John MacDonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Sir A. P. Caron, and Hon. Mr. Chapleau. Let every one of you be at your post to-night." This bill appearing as it did when people were almost beside themselves. any quarter of the city, and it is state! that a number of Orangemen have been spotted and are likely to feel the result of to-night's demonstration.

The uneasiness felt has been somewhat intensified by the news that Mayor Langelier left the city this morning on professional business, and it will impossible for him to return to-night except by special train. However, it is believed he has left some one to act in his place in case riot. B battery and other soldiers on garrison duty at the citadel have not been allowed out all day, and are held in readiness for any emergency. scaffolds have been erected in St. Roch's and effigies are to be hoisted and burned, and each mock execution will be accompanied by a speech, which will undoubtedly stir the already-kindled enthusism of the populace and perhaps cause a riot.

A meeting of the St. Jean Baptiste Society was held this afternoon, and a resolution was passed ordering the president to have their national flag draped in mourning and hoisted at halfmast for eight days. French citizens residing in St. John suburbs have decided to close their houses and business establishments and attend church en masse to sing a solemp service for the repose of Riel's L'Electeur, Liberal organ, appears to-night draped in mourning, and all its articles are most stirring. All its columns are devoted to the Riel matter. and it calls upon the French Canadians not to forget "the martyr who was murdered for the French cause," The story that the Eighth battalion has been ordered under arms is contradicted. It is believed that if that battalion was called out a great disturbance would be caused, as it is almost entirely composed of Englishspeaking residents. HOW THE NEWS WAS RECEIVED IN

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, November 16,-There was considerable excitement among the French-Canadian citizens here when the news of Riel's execution was received. French-Canadian students to the number of about five hundred, carrying the tri-color, marched through several streets of the city, giving vent to cheers for Riel and denouncing Sir John MacDonald. They groaned as they passed La Minerre office. Flags were it half-mast in many parts of the city. There will likely be a demonstration to-

The City Council this afternoon adopted a resolution to adjourn as " a protest against the odious violation of the laws of justice and humanity in the execution of Riel."

THE FEELING IN OTTAWA. OTTAWA, ONT., November 16.— The news of Riel's death was received quietly here. Protestant Conservatives are considerably elated, however, over what they term their triumph. A large number of them waited on the Premier and Hon, Mackenzie Borvell, Minister of Customs, congratulating them on the carrying out of the sentence of the court. Among the French-Canadians, who are in a large minority here, there is a deep feeling of displeasure, which may break out into open hostilities on the slightest provocation.

OTHER HANGING TO FOLLOW. The execution of Riel is to be followed at Battleford by the hanging of ten Indian chiefs for atrocities commit ted during the recent rebellion, and in each instance for murders committed. These last executions will close the book of criminal procedure growing out of the Northwest war, as the other persons convicted were given prison sentences, all of which are now being

The executioner of Riel was a man named Jack Henderson, who was a captive of Riel's in the rebellion of 1870.

FRANCE.

The Prime Minister's Statement-Tooquis and Madagascar.

(By cable to the Dispatch.) PARIS, November 16 .- Prime-Minster Brisson, in accordance with the programme announced on Saturday. nade a statement in the Chamber of Deputies to-day of the intentions of the Government. He said the Government would not hesitate to adopt fresh measures of taxation, if it were necessary. to cover the deficits in the finance de partment arising from commercial depression and military expenditures. He hoped the French protectorate over Annam would shortly show good results. and permit a recall of a portion of the troops in the coming spring. A residence general will be established at Hue, the capital city, and an administration adopted for the government of the country similar to that of Tunis. The Cabinet will shortly ask the Chamber to vote fresh credits on account of Madagascar, when the Government would furnish further details thereon.

Regarding the religious question, he " It appears certain that despite the attitude of the clergy, a majority do not favor a separation of the Church and State. It is necessary that the whole question should be thoroughly discussed at the next session of the Chamber. Meanwhile the Government will insist on the clergy respecting the law and will support obligatory mili tary service for all." He concluded as follows: "Appearances indicate that all political parties uphold France as a republic," M. Brisson said the cost of the expeditions to Tonquin and Madagascar has borne too hard upon the finances of the Government, and it behooves France to abandon her former policy, havingnowever, due regard to the national in terests and honor of the country. was proposed, therefore, to establish a system of protection at Hue, which should radiate throughout Annam and Tonquin, and at the same time carefully avoid everything that might lead to the eventual annexation of those countries. It was also intended to form an army consisting of Annamese troops, paid by the King of Annam, and of Tonquinese, paid temporarily by France, to protect the Tonuin frontier. The King of Annam would administer the government of the whole country under the guidance of a French resident. With regard to Madagascar, he said the Government recognized the fact that the present state of affairs there could not continue. He hoped to elucidate the subject when discussing credits. [By telegraph to the Dispatch.] PITTSEURGH, November 16 .- The National Rabbinical Convention of the Reformed Hebrew Church, called to consider the propriety of abolishing many of the traditional features of the Hebrew religion, was opened in Concordia Hall, Allegheny City, at 1 o'clock this morning, by Rev. Dr. M. M. Wise, of Cincinnati, Thirty-five delegates from all parts of the country presented credentials. Rev. Dr. Kohler, of New York, through whose efforts the Convention was brought about, made a long address advocating the passage of a series of resolutions tending towards the reform of Judaism n America. Dr. Kohler said the movement con templated doing away with some of the traditional features of Judaism, such as the belief of the othodox Hebrews that they are all to go back to Palestine. It is intended to liminate all the teachings that give Judaism a national or Oriental character. Dr. Kohler strongly argued in favor of ritual for Sabbath schools as the best nesns of inculcating the truths so earnestly advocated by the Convention. He also recommended that a universa service be adopted for marriage and funeral ceremonies, and strongly reprehended the practice now in vogue o each synagogue having its own forms and ceremonies. In reference to the reading of the Scriptures, he recommended that those portions be eliminated from the Pentateuch which referred to certain subjects not fit to be read in sublic or placed in the hands of children In vigorous language he denounced the rite of circumcision as a relic of barbarism which had come down from savage Africa. He lamented the fact that the religious fire had almost died out of the homes of the people, and thought more cheerful forms of worship should An Antopsy to be Held.

REVIEW OF THE CHICAGO MARKET, with a rush for lighter prices, the mass half hour, however, brought out such pleutiful offerings that to buil the market was out of the question. Cables were firm at the start, and the local receipts were light. These two firsts gave the market all the strength it possessed early and sent receipth were light, then the samping process becam and the prices quickly fell back to 94c. The market was sustained during the last half hour by freely-circulated rumors that to morrows visitue-supply states and trade in all other minor gamms was too small to attract any attention. The hog products were weak and lower. Pork dropped 20c. and the feeling was very weak, on the theory that two large comercips would overfund the market with hogs.
